On Wednesday 21st of August 2019, we have organized tour for those of you, who are interested in seeing a small part of Denmark.

- 11:45 o'clock We refill our water bottles and pick up our packed lunches, containing sandwiches and a snack.
- 12:00 o'clock We board the coach bound for Elsinore in North Zealand and Hamlet's KRONBORG Castle – a UNESCO World Heritage Site
- 12:45 o'clock A guided tour of KRONBORG Castle
- 15:00 o'clock Put on your swimsuit and jump into the blue sea like a Viking, relax on the white sandy beach or go for a walk downtown Elsinore
- 16:30 o'clock The coach transfers us to Louisiana Museum of Modern Art in Humlebæk
- 17:30 o'clock We'll enjoy our evening meal at the museum, with a view across the Sound to Sweden, before being shown around the sculpture garden and the collections of international art at LOUISIANA
- 20:30 o'clock The coach will drop us off at Klampenborg station and Bakken, an amusement park located in the Royal hunting grounds of Dyrehaven. For those wishing to return to the city, stay on board the coach and it will take you to Nørreport st.

A visit to Louisiana is an experience where art, architecture and nature form a special unity.
