

The City Region Perspective in a Globalized World
Aarhus University, Faculty of Arts, Department of Culture and Society

Conference program 20-21 November 2014

Day 1 (Meeting Room 2, Fredrik Nielsens Vej 4):

- 9.45-10.00: Arrival, registration, and coffee/tea
- 10.00 – 10.25: Welcome: Jacob Bundsgaard, Mayor of Aarhus (moderators: Postdoc Henrik Mølgaard Frandsen and Associate Professor Claus Møller Jørgensen, Department of Culture and Society, Aarhus University)
- 10.25 – 11.30: Keynote speaker Professor John Rennie Short, Department of Public Policy, University of Maryland Baltimore County: Big City, Small World: What do we know after Three Decades of Global Cities Research?
- 11.30 – 12.35: Keynote speaker Senior Researcher Evert Meijers, Department of Urban and Regional Development, Delft Technical University: Small cities borrowing size
- 12.35 – 13.35 Lunch at Stakladen (invited guests)
- 13.35 – 14.10: Post doc Henrik Mølgaard Frandsen, Aarhus University/Danish National Archives: Organizing a regional political framework in Eastern Jutland in the period since 1990 – some empirical cases

- 14.10 - -15.05: Associate Professor Henrik Harder, department of Architecture, Design and Media Technology, Associate Professor Carsten J. Hansen, Department of Planning, Aalborg University: The Spatial Implications of Commuting in City Region Eastern Jutland – Current and Potential Future Impact on Urban Development (Employment and Housing Patterns) in City Region Eastern Jutland
- 15.05-15.25: Coffee/Tea break
- 15.25 – 16.00 Discussion and concluding remarks
- 19.00: Dinner at Nordens Folkekøkken (Jægergårdsgade 6, 8000 Aarhus C.) – (keynotes and invited guests)

Day 2 (Richard Mortensen Room, building 1422, room 122):

- 9.00 - 9.15: Coffee/tea
- 9.15 – 10.00: Associate Professor Henrik Harder, department of Architecture, Design and Media Technology and Postdoc Henrik Mølgaard Frandsen, Aarhus University/Danish National Archives, Associate Professor Claus Møller Jørgensen, Department of Culture and Society (moderators): Discussion based on the joint application for the Danish Council for Independent Research – how to collaborate when looking further ahead.
- 10.00 – 10.40: Professor Tom Nielsen, Aarhus School of Architecture: Urbanization and the development of the landscape in Eastern Jutland
- 10.40-11.25: Professor Steen Bo Frandsen, Department of Border Region Studies, University of Southern Denmark: Denmark: A Regional Perspective?
- 11.25 – 12.10: Lunch at Stakladen (invited guests)

- 12.10 – 12.45: Associate Professor Per Homann Jespersen, Department of Environmental, Social and Spatial Change, Roskilde University: Transport Infrastructure and Regional Development
- 12.45 – 13.45: Senior Researcher Thomas Sick Nielsen, Senior Researcher Ninette Pilegaard, Assistant Professor Ismir Mulalic (all Department of Transport, Technical University of Denmark): Changing commuting and commuting distances in polycentric East Jutland and monocentric Zealand/capital area over the course of the financial crisis
- 13.45 – 14.05: Coffee/Tea break
- 14.05 – 14.25: Discussion and concluding remarks (invited guests).
- 14.25: Thank you for attending the conference

Finding your way: <http://www.studenterhusfonden.dk/konferencecenter/vejviserkort.aspx>

Hotel during your stay: Radisson Blu Scandinavia Hotel, Aarhus (Invited guests).