

Photo: Lars Kruse, AU-foto

Conference program

The 19th International Conference on Conceptual History: Key Concepts in Times of Crisis

14-16 September 2016

Conference program

Venue:

- » Auditorium 1, building 1441, Tåsingegade 3, 8000 Aarhus
- » Meeting room 2/Meeting room 2.3/Preben Hornungstuen/Mogens Zielerstuen, Konference-centret, Frederik Nielsens Vej, 8000 Aarhus C

Wednesday 14 September

09.30-11.00: Conference opening: Head of the School of Culture and Society, dr. Bjarke Paarup. General secretary of HCG, professor Martin Burke, CUNY
Short welcoming speech by Associate Professor Jan Ifversen.

Keynote Professor Anders Ekström (University of Uppsala): When is the now?

Chair: Martin Burke (in Tåsingegade, auditorium 1)

11.15-12.45: Sessions below:

Session 1: Panel TRANSFORMATION OF KEY CONCEPTS IN 18TH CENTURY RUS- SIA: Chair: Vladislav Rje- outski In Meeting room 2	Session 2 Chair: Christoffer Kølvraa In Preben Hornungstu- en	Session 3 Chair: Margrit Pernau In Mogens Zielerstuen	Session 4 Chair: Martin Burke In Meeting room 2.3
Sergey Pol'skoy (Nati- onal Research Univer- sity Higher School of Economics, Moscow): The role of translation in the formation of a new political language in 18th century Russia.	Marina Lourenço-Yil- maz (University of Coimbra): Mobilisation for the protection of Human Rights de- fenders: a history of a concept.	Juan Wu (Beijing In- stitute of Technology): Casual Research on Historical Incidents and Mythological Concepts	Victor Neumann (Cen- ter for Advanced Study in History, West Univer- sity of Timisoara): <CENTER< AND <PERI- PHERY>. Remarks on a series of controversial notions.
Konstantin Bugrov (Russian Academy of Sciences): Monarchism and moralism: Visions of Power in 18th centu- ry Russia..	Sinkwan Cheng (University College London): The Crisis of Right: Connecting the West and China, Self and Society and Negative and Positive Freedom.	Henning Trüper (Hel- sinki Collegium of Advanced Studies): Shipwreck: Notes on the existence of a Me- taphor of Existence.	Alexander Friedrich & Chris Biemann (Te- chnische Universität Darmstadt): Mapping Crises. An approach for a digital history of key concepts.
Maya Lavrinovich (Na- tional Research Univer- sity Higher School of Economics, Moscow): The concept of "friendship" in late 18th-early 19th century Russia: Social Cohesi- on reconsidered.			Vanessa Moraes Pacheco (Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile): The Devel- opment of the XIXth Chilean Historiograp- hy: concepts, methods and political uses (1844-1884).

12.45-13.45: Lunch

13.45-15.15: Keynote Professor Michael Freeden: Crisis? How is that a Crisis?! Reflections on an overburdened word.

Chair: Jan Ifversen (in Tåsingegade, auditorium 1)

15.30-17.00 Sessions below:

Session 5: Chair: Niklas Olsen In Meeting room 2	Session 6: Chair: Jani Marjanen In Mogens Zielerstuen	Session 7: Chair: Jussi Kurunmäki In Preben Hornungstuen
Julia Nordblad (Uppsala University): The changing temporalities of Intérêt Général: French Forest Politics 1827-1848.	José Maria Rosales (University of Málaga): Redescribing Intellectual Engagement: An outline from the crossed Lives of Azaña and Ortega 1914-1939.	Stephan Donecker (Universität Wien): Concepts of Migration in the Early Modern Republic of Letters.
Ilkka Kärriylä (University of Helsinki): From economic democracy to market adaptation – the fall of a political concept in the context of multiple crises.	Tziovanis Georgakis (University of Cyprus): The Machination of Phenomenological Reduction: Edmund Husserl's European Crisis in Crisis.	Agustin Cosovschi (École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales): New Frontiers, New Horizons: the Concept of Transition in Serbian and Croatian sociology during the 90's.
Rosario López (University of St. Andrews): Stability and Crisis in Victorian Liberalism. The case of Richard Cobden and the popularisation of free trade.	Henrik Björck (University of Gothenburg): Collegiality – a concept for the University in a Times of Crisis?	Roberto Castelar (University of Glasgow & University of Tartu): "Totalitarianism" - the central (western) concept of the Cold War.

17.00: Reception in the Museum of Ancient Art, Victor Albecks Vej 3, 8000 Aarhus C (on the opposite side of Nordre Ringgade)

Thursday 15 September

09.30-11.00: Keynote Professor Helge Jordheim (University of Oslo): Time of Crisis, Crisis of Time and the Role of Concepts.

Chair: Margit Pernau (in Tåsingegade, auditorium 1)

11.15-12.45: Sessions below:

Session 8 Chair: Jan Ifversen In Meeting room 2	Session 9 Chair: Sinai Rusinek In Preben Hornungstuen	Session 10 Chair: Martin Burke In Mogens Zielerstuen	Session 11 Chair: Pablo Sánchez Leon In Meeting room 2.3
Stephanie Martens (Laurentian University): The persistence of "civilisational thinking" in political theory: Citizenship, civility and their "others".	Roberto Vinicius P.S. Gama & Carlos Frederico Pereira da Silva Gama (Ind. Researcher): Becoming the International: disciplinary matrixes, the problem of difference and the making of International Relations.	Niklas Olsen (Copenhagen University): The crisis of the welfare state and the rise of neo-liberalism in Denmark in the 1970's.	Gustaf Johansson (University of Uppsala): Exponential times: Graphical visualizations of temporalities in the Swedish future debate of the early 1970s".
Alexandra Medzibrodzky (Central European University): Khristianskaia Obshestvennost': Creating a Christian Public Sphere in late imperial Russia.	Bjørn Thomassen (Roskilde Universitet): Liminality: reflecting from the threshold.	Bertel Nygaard (Aarhus University): Beyond expectation: reflections on categories of time after the future.	Jesper Vestermark Køber (Copenhagen University): New Conceptual formations in a time of crisis: Danish democracy debates in the 1970's.
Mart Rutjes (University of Amsterdam): How to become a non-negotiable democratic value: the re-conceptualisation of "separation of church and state" in Dutch public debate during the crisis of the 1980's.	Wiktor Marzec (Central European University): Crisis, Resilience and Change – semantic hysteresis, deep layers of time and structure of contingency.	Chair: Martin Burke Anne Engelst Nørgård (Aarhus University): "Democracy" and "movement" in a moment of revolutionary hopes and crises.	Sophy Bergenheim (University of Helsinki): People's health? Finnish civic expert organisation as constructors of public health and the people.

12.45-13.45: Lunch

13.45-15.15: Keynote Professor Janet Roitman (New School for Social Research): The Stakes of Crisis.

Chair: Helge Jordheim (in Tåsingegade, auditorium 1)

15.30-17.00: Sessions below:

Session 12 Chair: Michael Freeden In Meeting room 2.3	Session 13: BORDERS, SOVEREIGNTY AND TERRITORIALITY IN THE POST COLD WAR EUROPE	Session 14 Chair: Gabriel Entin In Preben Hornungstuen	Session 15 Chair: Christoffer Kølvrå In Meeting room 2
Frederico Dias (Centro Universitário de Brasília): Lost in Reality: Carr, Morgethau and realism as Utopia.	Ilkka Liikanen (University of Eastern Finland): Neighbourhood as a frame of EU policies Diana Mishkova: Conceptual construction of the Balkans and Southeastern Europe in the context of the Kosovo Crisis.	Paul Burgess (University of Edinburgh): Putting the concept of the Rule of Law in context Alexander Friedrich &	Heino Nyyssönen (University of Tampere): Concept of Crisis and origins of the Viktor Orbán regime in Hungary.
Yuri Kagarlitskiy (Russian Academy of Sciences): Virtue, moral debt and supererogation: the key ethical concepts in the time of crisis.	Teemu Oivo (University of Eastern Finland): The concept of "West" in the frames of the current Ukrainian crisis: conceptualisations of Russian media.	Pablo Sánchez Leon (Universidad del País Vasco): On the semantics of the law of progress: from constitutional to social thought in the history of modern concepts.	Carlos Frederico (Federal University of Tocantins) & Adriana Medronho (Pontifícia Universidade Católica do Rio de Janeiro): The concept of Corruption and the Brazilian Republic in Times of Crisis.
Esben Korsgaard Rasmussen (Copenhagen University): Aristotle's Political Philosophy and the Crisis of the Greek City State.	Diana Mishkova (CAS, Sofia): Conceptual construction of the Balkans and Southeastern Europe in the context of the Kosovo crisis.	Alexander Ewing (University of Oxford): The horizons of politics and the politics of horizons.	Kari Palonen (University of Jyväskylä): Restarting Parliamentary Politics after a Breakdown: On rules of procedure (Geschäftsordnung) in the Landtage of British Occupational Zone after 1945.
		Gennaro Imbriano (Università di Bologna): "Crisis" in time of crisis	Rosario Forlenza: Authority and Power in Times of Crisis: Charismatic Leadership Versus the Trickster.

17:00-18:00 Concepta meeting

19.00: Common dinner at restaurant Spiselaugget, located at the old Freight Station at Skovgaardsgade 3, 8000 Aarhus C. Link: <http://www.spiselaugget.dk/kontakt/>

Friday 16 September

09.30-11.00: Keynote Professor Willibald Steinmetz (University of Bielefeld): Outlines of a conceptual history of 'comparison'.

Chair: Jan Ifversen (in Tåsingegade, auditorium 1)

11.15-12.45: Sessions below

Session 16 Chair: Christoffer Kølvråa In Meeting room 2	Session 17: DEMOCRACY, THE NATIONAL AND THE SUPRANATIONAL IN WARTIME, A POSTWAR CRISIS AND THE COLD WAR Chair: Pasi Ihalainen In Preben Hornungstuen	Session 18: Panel COUNTER-CONCEPTS AND CONCEPTUAL ASYMMETRIES IN INTERDISCIPLINARY CONTEXT: NATURE, LANGUAGE AND ARTS Chair: Pablo Sánchez Leon In Meeting room 2.3	Session 19: Panel CONCEPTUAL TRANSFER AND ALTERNATIVE FORUMS FOR POLITICAL DEBATE: POLITICAL LIFE IN FINLAND AS A REACTION TO THE CRISIS OF THE FRENCH REVOLUTION AND THE NAPOLEONIC WARS 1809-1863 Chair: Margrit Pernau In Mogens Zielerstuen
Gonzalo Capellán (Universidad de la Rioja): Crisis, democracy and "The crisis of democracy" in Europe during the interwar years.	Teemu Häkkinen (University of Jyväskylä): Sovereignty versus supranational European unity; the British view in 1948-1949.	Kirill Postoutenko (Aarhus Institute for Advanced Studies): Enantiomers, Iconoclasm and Counter-concepts: Notes on identity formation in natural and social worlds, discussant Wiktor Marzec.	Jani Marjanen (University of Helsinki): The constitutional moment that happened abroad: public debate on constitution in Finland 1809-1830.
Heli Rantala (University of Turku): The crisis of the Revolution and some Finnish Responses to it.	Miina Kaarkoski (University of Jyväskylä): The Soviet threat and formulation of the European political cooperation: "National" and "supranational" in the West German and British parliaments. Discussant: Jan Ifversen	Kay Junge (University of Constance): Modern Art and the Framing of Negation: Counter-Images and Iconoclastic paintings.	Jussi Kurunmäki (University of Helsinki): The reception of parliamentary and ideological concepts in Finland 1809-1829.
Gabriel Entin (Universidad Nacional de Quilmes – Buenos Aires): The Concept of Independence during the Spanish Monarchical Crisis. The United Provinces in South America and the creation of nation through a declaration in 1816.	Antero Holmila (University of Jyväskylä): The concept and meanings of democracy in Franklin D. Roosevelt's rhetoric during the times of crisis 1939-1945.	Kiril Kozlovski (Sibelius Academy, Helsinki University): Asymmetrical oppositions and Hierarchical Structures in Soviet Musical Criticism. The Case of Essay Collection "Za rubezhom" ("Abroad") (1953).	Maren Jonasson (Åbo Akademi): Agricultural meetings as a forum for political debate in Finland 1847-1863. Comments by Willibald Steinmetz.

12.45-13.45: Lunch

13.45-15.15: Keynote Professor Javier Fernandez Sebastian (Universidad de País Vasco): Crucial Times: Crisis as a Solution of Continuity.

Chair: Kirill Postoutenko (in AIAS, Auditorium Aarhus Institute of Advanced Studies, Høegh-Guldbergs Gade 6B, 8000 Aarhus C, Buildings 1630-1632. NB: Not at the same place as the rest of the conference!)

15.30-17.00: Sessions below:

Session 20: Panel CONTESTED CONCEPTS IN CONSENSUAL POLITICAL CULTURE: STRUGGLES ON DEMOCRACY, PARLIAMENT AND PARLIAMENTARISM IN THE NORDIC COUNTRIES IN THE EARLY 20TH CENTURY Chair: Anna Friberg and Onni Pekonen In Mogens Zielerstuen	Session 21: Chair: Jani Marjanen In Preben Hornungstuen	Session 22: Chair: Kirill Postoutenko In Meeting room 2
Onni Pekonen (University of Jyväskylä): Debating the rules of the parliamentary game: competing conceptions of par- liament in late nineteenth- and early twentieth century Finland.	Cristian Roiban (West Univer- sität Temeswar): Deformed workers in a deformed workers' state. The conceptualisation of work in the communist Roma- nia (1970-1989).	Mithilesh Kumar Jha (Indian Insti- tute of Technology): Language, Religion, Caste and Conceptions of "Desha" (Nation): Re-exami- ning the politics of Hindi Public Sphere.
Pasi Ihalainen (University of Jyväskylä): Constructing futu- re democracies: Ideological transnationalisms in Finnish and Swedish constitutional contro- versies 1917-1919.	Esben Bøgh Sørensen (Aarhus University): Between moral economics and self-interest: the capitalist transition in England.	Marcos Reguera (Universidad de País Vasco): The transforma- tion of "Democracy" concept into "Manifest Destiny" concept during the crisis of Antebellum American Republic.
Anna Friberg (Mid-Sweden University): From socialisation to the People's Home: debates on democracy in Sweden after the First World War. Commentator: Jussi Kurunmäki.		Sergey Koretko (European Uni- versity Saint Petersburg): "Lost meaning of happiness: the no- tions of virtue, public good and pursuit of private interest in Early American political discourse (1787-1825).

17.00-18:00: Meeting for members of History of Concepts Group (all participants registered at the conference)

