EFYE 2021 Online conference
June 7th: Being and becoming a first-year student

9.00-9.10: Welcome
Pro-rector of Aarhus University, Berit Eika
Chair of the EFYE Committee, Diane Nutt

9.10-10.00: Keynote
Professor Lars Ulriksen, Department of Science Education at University of Copenhagen
Balancing and becoming – the encounter between students, teachers and institutions

10.00-10.15: Break

10.15-11.30: Paper session	10.15-11.30: Paper session	10.15-11.30: Workshop	10.15-11.30: Workshop
The first year student experience in Irish higher education, according to first year students Speaker: Nora Trench Bowles Here I am, stuck in the middle with me: career choice indecision Speaker: Lot Fonteyne Wellbeing of first year students: Mental health problems and sortering in an accelerated educational system Speaker: Lene Larsen Empowering first-year students: the effect of Life Skills on student well-being – a pilot study Speaker: Jacobs Johanna	The First Year Experiences of ethnic minority female Students at a Predominantly White University Speaker: Jenny Petrucci Students pathways to construct belonging within academia: How to become 'a real' university studen Speaker: Ida Ebdrup Hope and trepidation: student insights on the role of expectations in successful induction Speaker: Andrew Mearman	Discovering our Students; developing a diagnostic test for transition Speaker: Maggie Gibson	Digital support of first-year students and their sense of belonging: What do students' online interactions tell us? Speaker: Tine Wåast Nielsen & Rune Mastrup Lauridsen

11.30-11.45: Break

11.45-12.30: Online live poster session

12.30: End of live programme

Afternoon: Video pitches and networking on online platform
We facilitate hosting participants' 5-minute video pitches to see on demand as well as a platform for networking

EFYE 2021 Online conference
June 8th: Teaching first year students

9.00-10.00: Keynote
Professor of Higher Education Paul Ashwin, Lancaster University
The role of curriculum in becoming a first year university student

10.00-10.15: Break

10.15-11.30: Paper session	10.15-11.30: Paper session	10.15-11.30: Workshop	10.15-11.30: Workshop
Creating the Collaborative Curriculum: Disrupting the First Year Experience to Enhance Creativity and Innovation through Supported Risk-Taking and Cross-Discipline Collaboration Speaker: Kerry Gough Workload Analysis at TU Graz: Shaping teaching and learning while informing curricula design Speaker: Christoph De Marinis Combining Mathematics and Coaching to support student transition to Higher Education Mathematics Speaker: Deirdre Casey Getting closer to the student learning process in a large introductory course Speaker: Rannveig Grøm Sæle	Acquisition of theoretical concepts through online formative feedback exercises Speaker: Jacob Højgaard Christensen The impact of peer learning on the development of assessment and feedback literacy Speaker: Neil Ford Supplemental Instruction (SI) – student active learning and formative assessment Speaker: Elisabeth Suzen Can didactics provide answers to students' challenges in their first year of study? Speaker: Laura Cordes Felby	Enhancing students' reading and writing in the disciplines using a course design template Speaker: Simone Brendstrup, Stacey Cozart & Bente Kristiansen	Designing feedback and applying digital tools to improve learning strategies and performance Speakers: Herman Van de Mosselaer, Gert Vanthournout

11.30-11.45: Break

11.45-12.30: Online live poster session

12.30: End of live programme

Afternoon: Video pitches and networking on online platform
We facilitate hosting participants' 5-minute video pitches to see on demand as well as a platform for networking

EFYE 2021 Online conference
June 9th: Supporting the transition

9.00-10.00: Keynote
Professor of Educational Psychology, Kirsti Lonka, University of Helsinki
How epistemic profiles are related to study engagement and problems in studying

10.00-10.15: Break

10.15-11.30: Paper session	10.15-11.30: Paper session	10.15-11.30: Workshop
The importance of supporting students' sense of meaning and purpose when starting university Speaker: Jacques Van Der Meer Creative moments of AWE for first year Students – A campus-wide-initiative Speaker: Joy Petersen Enhancing First-Year Student Succes across TU Dublin Speaker: Ana Schalk Guidelines for inclusion of multilingual students with a migration background Speakers: Pieterjan Bonne, Joke Vrijders	Imagining the river: successfully navigating university through building and embracing affective relationships Speaker: Sarah Parkes Onboarding students with no prior experience in computer science with a two week preparatory course Speaker: Martin Dybdal Supporting first-year students' self-regulation skills in introductory courses Speaker: Elisa Sinikallio Getting staff ready for learning analytics: preliminary findings from a 3-year project Speaker: Pete Crowson	(Don't) tell me what to do: an apparent contradiction between student support and student autonomy Speaker: Liessa Engels

11.30-11.40: Break

11.40-12.00: Closing of conference and passing on to next year's EFYE
Finn Borchsenius, Chair of Organising Committee, Aarhus University

12.00-12.45: Online live poster session

12.45: End of live programme

Afternoon: Video pitches and networking on online platform
We facilitate hosting participants' 5-minute video pitches to see on demand as well as a platform for networking