To be signed by one of the authors, who agrees to inform and obtain approval from the other authors, if any.

I/we hereby transfer exclusively and free of cost to Aarhus University and the 2022 EG-ICE: 29th International Workshop on Intelligent Computing in Engineering all rights granted to me by the copyright laws of Denmark, subject to the specifications and reservations below:

1. The authors guarantee to have the copyright to all parts of the work and that its publication does not infringe the rights of others.
2. The transfer of copyright is effective upon acceptance for publication of the work in the proceedings including the EG-ICE and/or the EG-ICE.ORG and EG-ICE 2022 internet home pages.
3. The authors reserve all propriety rights (such as patent rights) in this work other than the copyright transferred to the EG-ICE and/or the EG-ICE by this document. The authors shall always be credited in accordance with Danish legislation hereunder the author's name should always be indicated. In addition – if relevant - title and publisher/media should also be stated.
4. If this work is in the public domain, such as government work, the authors simply authorize its publication.
5. If this work is subject to security clearance, the authors certify that as of the date below it has been cleared.
6. The authors warrant that the above work has not been previously published, or if it has, that they have obtained permission for its publication by the Publications Committee of EG-ICE or the organizers of EG-ICE 2022. The authors also warrant that they have obtained permission and credited the original publication and copyright owner.
7. The authors grant the organizers and/or the coordinators of the EG-ICE or the EG-ICE 2022 the right to post a PDF version of their paper on an open access database.
8. Except fixing layout issues, this agreement does not contain the right to make any changes to the work for Aarhus University or 2022 EG-ICE: 29th International Workshop on Intelligent Computing in Engineering.
9. This is a non-exclusive, irrevocable right of use for (a) reproduction and distribution in printed form; (b) storage on the institutional repository/ies of Aarhus University and (c) to make the work publicly accessible on the internet. The right is also granted to libraries, archives, and aggregators (e.g. Royal Danish Library, Google Books, subject repositories) for the purpose of long term archiving and to make the work publicly accessible. This applies to all known and yet unknown types of use, including the use of metadata under the license CC0 in order to record the publication in the pertinent bibliographic databases: https://creativecommons.org/publicdomain/zero/1.0/.
10. The author(s) is/are free to publish the work in other ways. After this work has been published in the proceedings of the EG-ICE 2022 Workshop, the authors have the right to republish it, in whole or part, in any publication of which they are an author or editor, and to make other personal use of the work. Any republication or personal use of the work must explicitly identify prior publication in the EG-ICE 2022 Workshop, proceedings, including page numbers.
11. Until at least one author of this work has furnished an executed copy of this document to the EG-ICE and/or the EG-ICE, the above work will not be processed for publication.
12. This agreement is governed by Danish legislation. All disputes between the Parties about the interpretation and implementation of this agreement shall be settled in accordance with Danish law and shall be presented before the ordinary Danish court located at AU's venue, and the Parties hereby submit themselves to the exclusive jurisdiction of said court. Before taking any legal action, the Parties to the dispute shall endeavour to settle the dispute amicably.
