

The future of health care systems - supporting clinical-academic integration for health system sustainability.

International conference, 19th June 2024, 8.30-4.00 pm.

Lakeside Lecture Theatres: Merete Barker Auditorium (1253, 211), Aarhus University, Bartholins Allé 3, 8000 Aarhus C, Denmark

8.30	Arrival and breakfast
9.00	Session 1 - Introduction - challenges and opportunities
9.00	Introduction and purpose The challenges facing health systems	Per Jørgensen , DMSc, Chief Medical Officer, Human First, Central Denmark Region
9.20	How to strengthen the value chain between the clinic, research, education and the broader ecosystem - past, present and future?	Søren Barlebo Rasmussen , Managing Partner, PhD, Mobilize Strategy Consulting, Copenhagen
10.00	Panel discussion with: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Anne-Mette Hvas, Dean of the Faculty of Health, Professor, Aarhus University • Thomas Larsen, Head of Corporate Management (Medicine), Central Denmark Region • Søren Barlebo Rasmussen, Managing Partner, PhD, Mobilize Strategy Consulting
10.30	Coffee and networking
10.50	Session 2 - Design and development of clinical academic integration
	Regional Hospital Central Jutland, Central Denmark Region	David Høyrup Christiansen , Professor, Aarhus University and Head of Research, Regional Hospital Central Jutland
	Mental Health Services, Capital Region of Denmark	Per Sørensen , Head of Psychiatric Centre, Stolpegård and Lars Vedel Kessing , Professor, University of Copenhagen and Consultant Psychiatrist, Psychiatric Centre Copenhagen
11.40	Session 3 - Delivery and support models
	Central Norway Regional Health Authority	Bjørn Gustafsson , Professor, Norwegian University of Science and Technology, Nord University and Vice CEO, Medical Director, Central Norway Regional Health Authority
	Bristol Health Partners	David Wynick , Professor of Molecular Medicine, University of Bristol and Director of Bristol Health Partners
12.30	Lunch
1.30	Session 4 - Impact and evaluation
	Greater Copenhagen Health Science Partners	Ruth Frikke-Schmidt , Professor, Deputy Head, University of Copenhagen and Chief Physician, Rigshospitalet and Director, Greater Copenhagen Health Science Partners

	King's Health Partners	Ingrid Wolfe , Professor of Paediatrics and Child Health, King's College University and Director, King's Health Partners' Women and Children's Health (invited)
2.15	Coffee and networking
2.45	Session 5 - Priorities to meet the challenges and realise the opportunities
2.45	Panel discussion: Priorities for enabling clinical academic collaboration to improve health outcomes and equity sustainably	Jill Lockett, Strategic Advisor - Life Sciences, Research & Innovation - Alumni Global (panel chair) Claus Brøckner Nielsen, Chief Medical Officer, PhD Regional Hospital Central Jutland Nick Sevdalis, Academic Director, Centre for Behavioural & Implementation Science Interventions, National University of Singapore (invited) Paolo Parini, Professor, Karolinska Institutet, MD, Senior Consultant, Director of Research & Development, Education and Innovation, National and International Affairs Department, Karolinska University Hospital Irem Patel, King's College University and Joint Director of Clinical Strategy, co-CAG leader, King's Health Partners Ruth Frikke-Schmidt, Professor, Deputy Head, University of Copenhagen and Chief Physician, Rigshospitalet Director, Greater Copenhagen Health Science Partners David Wynick, Professor of Molecular Medicine, University of Bristol and Director of Bristol Health Partners
3.45	Concluding remarks and vote of thanks	Per Jørgensen, DMSc, Chief Medical Officer, Human First, Central Denmark Region Joseph Casey, Director Partnerships and Operations, King's Health Partners, London
4.00	Conference close	