

Conference programme – June 1-2, 2026

Illness Narrative Retold – Diversity, Temporality, and Digitization

Venue: Aarhus University, Conference Center, Fredrik Nielsens Vej 4, 8000 Aarhus C

Web and contact: <https://conferences.au.dk/illness-narrative-retold>

The conference is funded by the research project Genetic hauntings. Pre-patient narratives in the era of direct-to-consumer genetic testing (IRDF 2023–2026)

June 1

9.00	Registration opens	Outside room 1427-246-M2
9.30-9.45	Welcome	Carsten Stage, Professor, Aarhus University Room: 1427-246-M2
9.45-10.30	Keynote 1	Angela Woods, Professor, Durham University: “Illness Narrative in the Age of Generative AI: Rescripting the Clinical Encounter” Room: 1427-246-M2 Chair: Carsten Stage
	Break
10.45-12.15	Panel track 1	Panel 1: Time, Narrative, and Illness: Lessons across Media and Genres Room: 1427-246-M2 Chair: Lasse Gammelgaard James Phelan: “Time, Ethics, and Audience in When Breath Becomes Air: A Rhetorical Reading of Its Last Ten Paragraphs” Antonio (Joey) Ferraro: “Time Enough: Temporal Pluralism in The Pitt and Clock Without Hands” Catherine Belling: “The Post-Trauma Plot: Temporal Sequencing in Autobiographical and Psychiatric Accounts of PTSD”	Panel 2: Illness in Graphic Novels and Comics Room: 1421-118-M1.1 Chair: Camilla Bruun Eriksen Noora Raiskio: “You’re Not Broken. Joy in Finnish Health and Illness Comics” Henrik Johnsson: “Illness in Graphic Novels for Young Audiences. The Case for (Not) Teaching Children about Health and Illness” Lisbeth Frølund: “Representing the Spiritual Aspects of Illness and Death in Narratives: Countering “Disneyfication””	Panel 3: Co-narrating the Clinical Encounter Room: 1420-234-M2.2 Chair: Matilde Nisbeth Brøgger Cindie Maagaard: “Finding Narrative Form for the Uncertainties of Critical Care: The Case of the Intensive Care Patient Diary” Marjolein Uitham: “Merged Frames, Drawing for the Consultation Room” Karen Schriver: “Beyond Patient Stories: How Clinicians Position Themselves in Psychiatric Consultations”
12.15-13.00	Lunch	1423.111 - Stakladen
13.00-14.30	Panel track 2	Spotlight panel 1: Gender and Illness Narrative Room: 1427-246-M2 Chair: Amanda Karlsson Ida Melander: “Illness Narratives on	Panel 4: Disability, Pain, and Injury Room: 1421-118-M1.1 Chair: Henrik Johnsson Anna Ovaska: “Rethinking	Panel 5: Narratives in and on Health Institutions Room: 1420-234-M2.2 Chair: Jane Ege Møller	Panel 6: Creative Explorations of Illness Experiences Room: 1420-226-M2.4 Chair: Karen Schriver

		Instagram: Sharing and Retelling the Experience of Endometriosis” Karen Hvidtfeldt: ““Service Due”: Masculinity, Biopolitics, and Affect in Nordic Men’s Cancer Prevention Campaigns” Peter Simonsen: “Read Like a Man: Narrative Medicine in Practice”	(Reading) Narratives of Chronic Pain” Soffia Sarkisian and Anna Nikoleishvili: “The Afterlife of Injury: Compulsory Positivity and the Moral Framing of Disability” Catherine Medici: “Women’s Chronic Illness Stories: Creating a New Understanding of Illness”	Pernille Meyer: “Towards a Typology of Literary Doctor-Patient Encounters” Katarina Bernhardsson, Katarina Båth and Torbjörn Forslid: “Between Care and Bureaucracy: Swedish Illness and Healthcare Narratives Across Time” Sakshi Srivastava: “Retelling Illness Otherwise: Redefining Chronicity, Mediation, and Narrative Diffusion in Contemporary South Asian Narratives”	Hilde Bondevik and Oddgeir Synnes: “Critical Explorations of Poetic Language and Illness” Yi (Luna) Wang: “Validation gap: Interactive Illness Narratives and the Politics of Representation in VR” Marianne Raakilde Jespersen: “Onwards Through Words: Creative Writing Workshops for Patients Suffering from Chronic Neurological Diseases”
	Break
14.45-16.15	Panel track 3	Spotlight panel 2: Diversifying Illness Narratives Room: 1427-246-M2 Chair: Karen Hvidtfeldt Lasse R. Gammelgaard: “Life as an Experiment and Narrative Delirium as Truth: The Case of Ernesto Dalgas” Maria Bee Christensen-Strynø: “Already Working from Home: Narrative Fragments and Modalities of Crip Embodied Experience” Nora Simonhjell: “Why All Norwegians Must Go Skiing: The TV Narrative about Childhood Dementia and Disabled Youth”	Panel 7: Queering Time Room: 1421-118-M1.1 Chair: Marianne Raakilde Jespersen Avril Tynan: “Narratives of (Un)Recovery” Sean Yeager: ““I Have Seven Limbs, So That Was Very Relatable”: Interviewing Autistics about Time, Kinship, and Science Fiction” Christian Schulz-Quach: “Queer Aging, Intersectional Illness, and Narrative Witnessing”	Panel 8: Health and Illness in News and Journalism Room: 1420-234-M2.2 Chair: Peter Simonsen Anna Krogh: “When Health Journalism Becomes Economic Policy” Camilla Bruun Eriksen: “Public/Private Illness: AIDS Narratives in Danish Print Media” Maja Klausen and Yukun You: “Did You Sleep Alright? Small Stories about Sleep between Health and Illness”
	Break
16.30-17.15	Keynote 2	Danielle Spencer, Senior Lecturer, Columbia University: “Metagnosis: Illness Narratives and Knowledges Retold” Room: 1427-246-M2 Chair: Ann-Katrine Schmidt-Nielsen
19.00	Conference dinner at Gods: https://foodfamilygroup.dk/gods/ Address: Godsbanen, Karen Wegeners Gade 8 (entrance 3A or 3H), 8000 Aarhus C

June 2

9.30-11.00	Panel track 4	Panel 9: Writing Uncertainty Room: 1427-246-M2 Chair: Anna Krogh Fahime Serhatti: “Inhabiting the Unmasterable Now: The Narrative-Epistemological Paradox in Samantha Harvey’s The Wilderness” Alex Pickett: “Altered Paths: Narrating Age-Related Memory Loss” Luna Dieleman: ““Not be able to think doesn’t mean to not know”. Ethics and the essay in Anne Boyers The Undying (2019)”	Panel 10: Narrating and Governing the Female Body Room: 1421-118-M1.1 Chair: Lisbeth Frølund Eva Dudáková: “Representation of Illness Narrative in Contemporary Slovak Fiction: Mental Illness Experience and Strategies of its Mediation to Public Through Literature” Natacha Ferreira Moreira: “Between Confinement and Self-Making: Autobiographical Narratives of Institutionalized “Mad” Women in Europe and Latin America” Kristen Loutensock: “Incomplete Stories of Illness and Suffering”	Panel 11: In and Beyond the Pandemic Room: 1420-234-M2.2 Chair: Sondre Kvamme Marta Fernández-Morales: “More than a Virus: A Syndemic Approach to COVID-19 through Epistolary Literature in the U.S.” Charlotte Nørholm and Anna Louise Skovgaard: “Recovering Hope or Hoping for Recovery? Narratives of Rehabilitation Potential and Imagined Futures among Long COVID Patients in Denmark” Lucyl Harrison: “Pandemic Pages: Building a COVID-19 Archive Through Academic Podcasting”
	Break
11.15-12.00	Keynote 3	Stefania Vicari, Professor, Loughborough University: “Social Media of Health and Illness: Platform, Narratives and Values” Room: 1427-246-M2 Chair: Ann-Katrine Schmidt-Nielsen
12.00-13.00	Lunch	1423.111 - Stakladen
13.00-14.30	Panel track 5	Spotlight panel 3: Narrative in Medical Education Room: 1427-246-M2 Chair: Anna Louise Skovgaard Anders Juhl Rasmussen: “Narrative Medicine in Medical Education” Jane Ege Møller: “An Alternative Rhythm in Clinical Practice: Integrating Narrative Medicine Education in Postgraduate Hospital Settings” Katarina Bernhardsson: “Long-Term Aims of Literature, Storytelling, and Narrative Medicine in Medical Education”	Panel 12: The Narratives and Dangers of Care Room: 1421-118-M1.1 Chair: Nora Simonhjell Linda Hamrin Nesby: “Illness and Its Many Voices” Sondre Johan Chesney Kvamme: “Being Your Own Caregiver: The Use of Second-person Narration in Eivind Grip Fjær’s Novel Det stemmer ikke” Tarun Athmika: “The Paradox of Care: ‘Controlling’ Care in Narratives of Madness”	Panel 13: (Post)reproductive Storytelling Room: 1420-234-M2.2 Chair: Maja Klausen Kari Nyheim Solbrække: “What is at Stake in Social Influencers’ Stories about Pregnancy and Childbirth? The Case of Norway” Sarah Brophy: “#HotFlash: Menopause Influencers, Misinformation, and Me” Anita Wohlmann: “Metaphors and Narratives and Their Role in Politicized Health Care Discourses: The Case of Abortion”
	Break
14.45-16.15	Panel track 6	Panel 14: Handling Embodied Data and Narratives	Panel 15: Images and Sounds of Illness	Panel 16: Narrative Communities of Illness

		Room: 1427-246-M2 Chair: Carsten Stage Allison Coffelt: “Bankrupt 23andMe: Ethical, Legal, and Narrative Implications” Ann-Katrine Schmidt Nielsen and Carsten Stage: “Narratives of Genetic Risk in the Context of DTC Genetic Testing” Marjo Kolehmainen: “Digital Traumas: Victim-survivors’ Stories of the Aftermath of a Psychotherapy-related Data Breach”	Room: 1421-118-M1.1 Chair: Linda Nesby Kaisu Hynnä-Granberg and Mari Lehto: “Selfie-Production as a Method of Self-exploration in Sickness and Ill-being” Anna Leppo, Salome Tuomaala-Özdemir, Elina Niinivaara and Iida Putkuri: “What Does Pain Sound Like? Video Art as an Experiment of Episodic Reading of Chronic Illness” Ayşecan Terzioğlu: ““Hopeful but Cautious”: Self-editing and Affective Economies in Turkish Women’s Breast Cancer Narratives on Instagram”	Room: 1420-234-M2.2 Chair: Charlotte Nørholm Lena Englund: “The Shared Story in Autoethnographic Illness Narrative Research” David Lombard: “Renegotiating Epistemic Authority: Relational-Experiential Knowledge in Twenty-First-Century Family Memoirs of Schizophrenia” Amanda Karlsson: “Telling through Doing: Men’s Illness Narratives Emerging in Acts of Paying it Forward”
	Break
16.30-17.15	Keynote 4	Arthur Frank, Professor Emeritus, University of Calgary: “Narrative Wreckage and Redemption: Selves, their Stories, and Typologies” Room: 1427-246-M2 Chair: Carsten Stage
17.30	Informal closing reception	1423.111 – Stakladen Light refreshments and informal networking		